

UPSTAIRS

TO START WITH....

Take your time.
No rush.
Check the colours.
From pale lemon to orange.
From orange to dark purple.
Wrap yourself with the aromas.
Don't think.
Taste it.
Keep it in your mouth for a second.
Breathe through it.
Play with your senses.
And let the magic begin...

RED WINE OF THE MONTH

Cascabel Tipico 2012,
(Grenache, Shiraz, Monastrell),
McLaren Vale, Australia 14%

£10.95 / £40

Vibrant fruit, earthy herbal notes and seductive aromas of black olives. This is no ordinary GSM the wine is Monastrell driven full of spice with savoury meaty and elegant plum notes. Great with your Veal steak

WHITE WINE OF THE MONTH

Clos du Papillon 2006
Chenin Blanc
Savennieres, Loire. France 13.5%

£12.95 / £48

The Baumard family have been located in and around Rochefort-sur-Loire since 1634. Very pale. Green hints and the typical, reductive style of Baumard. Very fresh on entry with a green asparagus expression. Linear and tight with a phenolic edge running through the wine. Ideal with your lobster!!!

BEER OF THE MONTH

Chopper Stout, 6° North
Stonehaven. Scotland

£4.95

With a bountiful nose of chocolate, coffee, treacle/caramel and well integrate maltiness; this is one for the lovers of darker beers.

COCKTAIL OF THE MONTH

Mary Rose £ 7.95

Rose wine. Amaretto. Pineapple juice. Rosemary and sparks.

Delicate and aromatic!!!

WHISKY OF THE MONTH

Glendronach – cask 3 £9.95

Did Glendronach need the magic to create a stunning no-age-statement single malt aged in Oloroso and Pedro Ximenez casks? No, they have skills to do that themselves, but magic is always good
